

Mary Magdalene's Healing Wisdom

Light of unconditional love and divine Grace

The coming Golden Age is on our doorstep. More and more humans start to awake and realise the enormous power of unconditional love. Many of us have started sharing love, helping Mother Earth in the huge process of transformation and ascension. I always felt strongly connected to Mary Magdalene – her purity and devotion has touched me in the deepest corners of my soul. In the summer of 2009 I realised I had accompanied her in previous lives and was taught by the same divine power. In a stage of very deep transformation, all the old memories returned and I knew this is not only for me – I have to share it with you .

If you feel a strong desire, longing for the love of Christ in your heart and you are willing to serve with love in order to create a better world – then you are warmly welcome to reactivate Magdalene's wisdom within you.
